Musical Theatre Revue

27 - 28 April
7 - 10pm

Musical Theatre

The BTEC Musical Theatre students invite you to the Emerald City in our revue of Wicked meets the Wizard of Oz & The Wiz.

In our Alternative Oz, witness a good witch's turn for the worse as she is cyberbullied into evil. Meet the girl from Kansas who stands up to both her and to a wizard who longs to make Oz great again.

Tickets can be purchased from Eventbrite

The Music Box, Sighthill campus, Bankhead Avenue, Edinburgh, EH11 4DE
Tickets: £5

Blue Stockings

17 & 18 May
2pm & 7pm both days

Acting & Performance

Girton College, Cambridge, the first college in Britain to admit women.

The Girton girls match their male peers grade for grade, yet, when the men graduate, the women leave with nothing but the stigma of being a 'blue stocking' - an unnatural, educated woman. They are denied degrees and go home unqualified and unmarried outcasts.

The play follows the girls over the course of one year in their fight to be seen as equal and ultimately change the future of education.

Tickets can be purchased from Eventbrite

PASS Theatre, Granton campus, 350 West Granton Road, Edinburgh, EH5 1QE
Tickets: £9/£7 concession

PASS Out

17 & 18 May
7.30pm

Acting & Performance

Edinburgh College's Performing Arts Studio Scotland returns to the Traverse with their unique take on showcase performances for graduate actors.

This year, the students will work for two weeks with cutting edge European directors including Aleksander Ivanovski (National Theatre, Macedonia) and Laurentiu Blaga (National Theatre, Romania) to create new pieces on the theme of 'leaving'. Leaving college, leaving Europe, leaving home, leaving youth behind...

Tickets can be purchased from traverse.co.uk

Traverse Theatre, 10 Cambridge St, Edinburgh EH1 2ED
Tickets: £12.50/£8.50 concession

Ministry of Make-up

18 May
6-9pm

Make-Up Artistry

Ministry of Make-up is an event organised by HND Make-up Artistry first year students as part of their course. This will showcase the skill and expertise of make-up artistry students at Edinburgh College on SQA and VTCT courses.

There will be a range of visual mediums on display including collaboration with other performing arts and photography students.

Please note: There may be nudity (live model) and/or photography.

Tickets can be purchased from Eventbrite

The Hub, Granton campus, 350 West Granton Road, Edinburgh, EH5 1QE
Tickets: £7

Exhibition of Theatre Costume

31 May - 12 June
11am - 6pm

Theatre Costume Interpretation

This exhibition showcases the work of our incredibly talented HND Theatre Costume Interpretation students, with year two's stunning ladies costume projects and year one's intricate 16th century menswear on display in the beautiful natural light of the Festival Theatre.

Festival Theatre, 13-29 Nicolson St, Edinburgh EH8 9FT
Tickets: Free admission

King Lear

7 & 8 June
2pm & 7pm both days

Acting & Performance

Shakespeare's classic tale of the descent into madness by a once respected King.

As George Bernard Shaw once wrote "No Person Will Ever Write A Better Tragedy than Lear".

Tickets can be purchased from Eventbrite

PASS Theatre, Granton campus, 350 West Granton Road, Edinburgh, EH5 1QE
